

Global World Bond in USD (High Yield Eligible)

MARKETING COMMUNICATION

Management Team

David W. Rolley, CFA
Lynda Schweitzer, CFA
Scott M. Service, CFA

Objective

Seeks to identify undervalued securities worldwide and create diversified global bond portfolios that provide risk-adjusted performance superior to the benchmark through balanced contributions of top-down and bottom-up sources

Highlights

- Our investment philosophy combines top-down macroeconomic insights with intensive bottom-up credit research across major sectors of the bond market
- Our sovereign research universe is comprised of more than 100 countries, and portfolios are typically invested in 25 to 35 countries
- Invests across a broad global universe of securities including government, quasi-government and agency securities, corporate credits, and asset-backed securities including mortgages
- Seeks to identify and create diversified portfolios with undervalued and preferably discount securities across relevant risk factors, including country, currency, curve, sector and specific credit
- Seeks to manage risk through diversification and continuous monitoring of absolute risk and tracking error from the benchmark
- Below investment grade is typically limited to 20%
- Emerging markets debt allocation: generally less than 25%
- Typical tracking error: 1% to 4%, depending on the market environment
- Typical portfolio: greater than 200 issues
